

SUPPLIES

Please bring:

Your regular painting setup.

A laptop, iPad, or tablet (and charging cord) to install your copy of the photo on. Smart phones are not encouraged because the image is too small to see easily while you are painting.

No laptop or tablet? Please contact Kate in advance by texting 775-315-0468 if you need a hard-copy photograph.

LATE BEGINNING & EARLY INTERMEDIATE STUDENTS:

- I encourage you to use the colors I am demonstrating with if you can, as you will have a lot more success reproducing the colors and effects (and lots Less Frustration). If that's too hard a hit on your pocketbook, read the note to Late Intermediate and Advanced Students below.
- Yes, it's important to get the exact color name by the exact maker.
- If you don't have brushes you Adore, please consider trying the Richeson 7000 brand I use. I use them because they're really good, and that means Less Frustration, especially when you're young at art.
- If you have questions about the supplies, please call or email me and ask. kateaubrey@mac.com or 775-315-0468

LATE INTERMEDIATE & ADVANCED STUDENTS:

- Although Painting the Floral Portrait in Watercolor is designed so you can use your own paints, paper, etc., I do ask that you have M. Graham's, Stephen Quiller's, or Blockx's Cadmium Yellow Light.
- Yes, it's important to get the exact color name by the exact maker.
- Otherwise, please feel free to bring all your own usual painting supplies/equipment.

Because people usually want to know, here is a list of.....

- American Journey 1 1/2" Round Wash (This, oddly enough, is a flat wash brush sold online by Cheap Joe's Art Stuff, and can periodically be found on sale there.)

Watercolor paper – Hahnemuhle The Collection Watercolor Paper, rough or cold press surface 140#; Saunders Waterford, Arches or Fabriano Artistico, rough or cold press, 140#. I recommend working on a 1/4 sheet or a 1/2 sheet, depending upon your level of expertise.

Painting setup:

Sketch pad, 9 x 12" or 5 x 7" for design sketches/notes

Pencils (graphite) - Prismacolor Turquoise 2B or Durwent HB or equivalent

Pencil sharpener - small, handheld, metal

Kneadable eraser

Mr. Clean Original Magic Erasers

Richeson Weston Half-French Easel

Board to support watercolor paper - hollow-core drafting board, plywood, masonite, Gatorboard, or other boards made for the purpose and carried by art stores and mail order art suppliers.

Water container(s)

Viva original paper towels

Spray bottle - adjustable from a fine spray to a stream (Hobby Lobby)

Hair dryer

Plain old masking tape – 1 1/2" works well, the kind made by 3M. Special tapes made for artists are OK.

Old clothes, smock or apron

Canon Rebel SLR digital camera or smartphone camera

Laptop or tablet

Please note that I will have some paints and brushes available for purchase at the first class. M.Graham paints can often be found at your local art supply store. You can keep them in business by looking there first.

- M. Graham and Quiller brands are carried online at www.jerrysartarama.com, and can be found at or ordered by Jerry's Artarama of Knoxville.
- M. Graham brand is available at www.dickblick.com.
- Quiller brand can also be purchased at www.quillergallery.com, whose prices are sometimes less than through the above suppliers.
