

Beginning/Intermediate Encaustic (Hot Wax) Painting with Lil Clinard

Dates: Thursday January 5 thru Saturday January 7

Time: 9 AM – 4 PM (Bring your lunch)

Location: Chota Room A

Cost: AGTV Members: $175, Non-Members: $225

This assumes you have your own hot palette, heat gun, pans, brushes, encaustic paint and tools.

For those students that need these items for use during the class, there will be a charge of $50 which you can pay when you register.

Supply List:

Heated Palette (an electric griddle with thermostat works well)

Encaustic Gesso (R&F white gesso - online or Jerry's)

Encaustic Medium (R&F medium pellets - online or

Jerry's) Encaustic Paints (R&F or Encaustikos paint, it's good to have both sticks and cakes – online or Jerry's)

Paint Pans (any 4 or more small metal pans, round or square)

Brushes (any natural bristle brushes, soft and cheap is good)

Heat Gun (Candler heat gun for crafts is safest)

Tools for scraping and incising (metal tools, used for etching, clay sculpting or even dentistry)

Painters Tape Paper Towels

Nice to have items: apron, vinyl or latex gloves, stamps and stencils, images on thin paper like standard copy paper, napkin or tissue paper, watercolors, pastels, oil sticks or inks.

I will have encaustic paint and other encaustic supplies for sale at the class. Please let me know in advance what you need. Email: WatercolorsByLil@charter.net.
